

- Some Spanish colors are named for flowers or objects:

rosa, violeta, turquesa, salmon

Because they are named for particular objects they don't have to change at all

Ejemplo: El lápiz violeta vs. la puerta violeta
 Los lápices violeta vs. las puertas violeta

- You probably noticed that lots of Spanish adjectives come after the noun!
 The green book vs. El perro verde.

Escribe las frases (sentences) en español

1. The white book. El libro blanco
2. The red flag. _____
3. The yellow table _____
4. The orange garbage _____
5. The intelligent female student _____
6. The big pencil _____
7. The small male student _____
8. The blue pens Los bolígrafos azules
9. The black tables _____
10. The red books _____
11. The brown schools _____
12. The crazy teachers (m&f) _____
13. The small table _____
14. The big books _____
15. The crazy homework _____